KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

JONATHAN MOONEY established himself as one of the foremost leaders in LD/ADHD and alternative education with his book, "Learning Outside the Lines." A writer and activist, Mooney graduated from Brown University with an honors degree in English literature. He is dyslexic and did not learn to read until he was 12 years old.

Mooney is the executive director and co-founder of Project Eye-To-Eye, a nationally acclaimed mentoring program for children with LD/ADHD. Project Eye-To-Eye's mission is to bring college students with LD/ADHD into the lives of elementary school students with LD/ADHD as role models, tutors and mentors.

Mooney, who has lectured internationally, has been featured and quoted in The New York Times, The Providence Journal, The Boston Globe and USA Today. He was awarded the distinguished Truman scholarship for graduate studies in creative writing and education and was a national finalist for the Rhodes scholarship.
